Borrower Interview

Via the Borrower Interview menu, as the administrator, you can configure the borrower interview portal, which is the interview process that takes place after applicants click the Get Started button on your Zip landing site. How you configure the borrower interview portal will be reflected in each loan officer's borrower interview portal.

NOTE: Loan officers can customize their own Zip landing sites, should you grant those access rights to them (which you can do here, Editing Loan Officer Access Rights), but they cannot customize their own borrower interview portals.

Configuration

On the Configuration screen, you can choose which types of questions to have in the borrower interview portal and which types of take out (for example, demographic and employment questions about the borrower). The grayed-out checkboxes (Contact and Submit) represent the pages of the borrower interview portal that cannot be taken out. Unchecked boxes are omitted from the interview. For example, if Refinance is unchecked, all questions regarding refinancing are taken out of the interview.

The E-Sign Act requires a financial institution to maintain electronic records accurately reflecting the information contained in applicable contracts, notices or disclosures and that they remain accessible to all persons who are legally entitled to access for the period required by law in a form that is capable of being accurately reproduced for later reference. See Section 101(d).

If your borrower creates a dashboard account, their eConsent acceptance will follow the retention period set here for each loan file unless or until withdrawn. If a dashboard account is not created, the borrower will need to consent for each request of electronic activity.

Retain electronic disclosures, eConsent and electronically signed documents for days (minimum 90 days.)
